THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 14, 1989

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I was pleased to welcome you to the White House, and Barbara enjoyed greeting you following our meeting. I valued our substantive discussions.

Barbara and I thank you for the thoughtful gifts you brought for us. The statue and the table cover reflect the exacting workmanship for which the Chinese people are so well known.

With our best wishes,

Sincerely,

Gay Bush

His Excellency

Wan Li

Chairman of the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress of the People's Republic of China
